

Japan Data Catalog

for the Humanities and Social Sciences

Data Catalog, cross-sectoral bulk search of data enabled in the humanities and social sciences

▶ What is Japan Data Catalog for the Humanities and Social Sciences (JDCat)?

JDCat compiles metadata (e.g., information on authors and time periods) provided by research institutes participating in this program. Through cross-sectoral data search, JDCat facilitates access to a wide variety of humanities and social sciences data held by these research institutes. An English version of the Catalog is provided for use by overseas researchers. (Some metadata are omitted).

Faceted Search
Search can be conducted by selecting a participating research institutes or topic.

Advanced Search
Any word can be used to conduct a search.

Top Information Manual Link Guideline

Search [ ] press enter to search

Search Advanced

Full text Keyword

Access Data Language Distributor Geographic Coverage Topic

Item Lists 1 - 20 of

Display Order: Title

Higher Normal Schools and Temporary Teacher Training Schools (FY 1925-1934) : Statistical Yearbook of Imperial Japan 56 (1937) Table 228

Japan. Ministry of Education
Institute of Economic Research, Hitotsubashi University
PERIOD: FY 1925-1934. SOURCE: [Annual Report of the Ministry of Education]; [Statistical Abstract of Education].

Higher Normal Schools and Temporary Teacher Training Schools (FY 1927-1936) : Statistical Yearbook of Imperial Japan 58 (1939) Table 240

Information shown as of February 2022.

Examples of data provided by participating research institutes* *Further data scheduled to be added in sequentially.

- ◆ Japanese General Social Surveys : JGSS (JGSS Research Center at Osaka University of Commerce)
- ◆ Japan Household Panel Survey and other panel surveys (Panel Data Research Center at Keio University)
- ◆ Japanese Life Course Panel Survey of the Youth (JLPS-Y) (Center for Social Research and Data Archives, Institute of Social Science, the University of Tokyo)
- ◆ Statistical Yearbooks of Japan since the Early Meiji Era, and Questionnaire Forms and Survey Overviews of Official Statistics (Institute of Economic Research, Hitotsubashi University)
- ◆ Materials of the Bingo-Fukuyama Han Abe Family (Historiographical Institute of the University of Tokyo)

Examples of system usage

- ◆ Data needed for your research can be retrieved via batch search of archived data.
- ◆ Citation/use of your research data is expanded when your metadata deposited in a participating research institutes are listed in JDCat.
- ◆ The Catalog can be used for education as it allows teachers and students to use the same data when, for example, teaching analytical methods.

For Researchers in the Humanities and Social Sciences

The Japan Society for the Promotion of Science provides the following Guide and Data Catalog to promote the sharing and use of data in the Humanities and Social Sciences.

You are invited to take advantage of these resources in conducting your research activities.

Want to learn points to consider when sharing and using data?

⇒A Guide to Data Sharing in the Humanities and Social Sciences

Want to find useful data when pursuing your research?

⇒Japan Data Catalog for the Humanities and Social Sciences (JDCat) ⇒ [To reverse side]

A Guide to Data Sharing in the Humanities and Social Sciences*

This systematic guide for data sharing is formulated in sync with the guidelines of overseas and international organizations. Please use this Guide when collecting, analyzing, sharing, or using data in your research.

*The guide is written in Japanese.

Examples:

- ◆ Meaning/importance of data sharing
- ◆ Metadata (Humanities series/Social Sciences series)
- ◆ Data format
- ◆ Privacy and anonymization
- ◆ Data copyrights

人文学・社会科学におけるデータ共有のための手引き

—人文学・社会科学データインフラストラクチャーの構築に向けて—

令和3(2021)年11月

独立行政法人日本学術振興会

人文学・社会科学データインフラストラクチャー構築推進事業

<https://www.jsps.go.jp/j-di/guide.html>

JSPS

Humanities and Social Sciences Section, University-Industry Cooperation and Research Program Division, Research Program Department, Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (JSPS)

Kojimachi Business Center, 5-3-1 Kojimachi, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo 102-0083, JAPAN. Phone: +81-3-3263-1106 E-mail: di-hs@jsps.go.jp